"Aligning Our Spirit with God's Presence"

As we turn the page on a new year, I am reminded of the meaningful time we spent in the Advent season. This Christmas, we celebrated not only the moment when Jesus was born in a manger 2,000 years ago but also the profound truth that Christ is still present among us. God is not distant or passive but intimately involved—in our lives, in the lives of people around the world, and in nature itself.

As we usher in the new year, many of us are setting resolutions and intentions, reflecting on changes we hope to make or goals we aim to achieve. While these practices are meaningful, it is also valuable to pause and reevaluate our deeper intentions: to reflect on the unique roles we are called to play in God's unfolding story.

God has placed a unique calling on each of us and is actively at work in and through us. God leads us to the people and places we need to be—sometimes to share our gifts with others, and at other times to receive gifts of healing, grace, and blessing. Wherever we are on this journey, God's presence is with us, guiding and sustaining us.

Perhaps instead of making a New Year's resolution, we can ask ourselves: Where do we need to be in this moment? What intentions can we set to align our hearts and actions with God's purpose? How can we align our spirit with God's presence?

For some, this might mean deepening a practice of prayer or meditation, recommitting to the study of scripture or other spiritual books, or committing to serving others in specific and tangible ways. For others, it may involve stepping into new opportunities, nurturing relationships, or simply being open to receive the blessings God is offering.

As we set our intentions for the year ahead, let us seek alignment with the living, active God who is at work in all things. Let us remain attentive to the ways God is calling us to be present, to act, and to love. And let us be mindful that, as we follow this calling, we participate in a purpose far greater than ourselves—a purpose that seeks the restoration and flourishing of all life.

May this new year be one of clarity, purpose, and deepened faith as we walk in step with the God who is making all things new. May you find joy in the journey and strength in the knowledge that you are part of God's beautiful story of renewal.

With blessings and hope for the year ahead,

Drew

Food Pantry Mission

The Food Pantry operates twice a month, on 1st and 3rd Fridays from 1-3 p. m. Up to 2 bags of groceries and frozen meats are given to local families that are impacted by food insecurities. Westover and Living Water partner together for volunteers to help with the food distribution. Rising Liberty Church connected the Food Pantry with the Chesterfield Food Bank, which provides the majority of the food, and to which we give a monthly donation to help offset their costs. Our congregation provides food and monetary support as well. Living Water and its volunteers harvest produce from the Community Garden to include in the food distribution. We couldn't do all that we do without the generous help of the Baptist General Association of Virginia providing us with monetary donations from their Hunger Funds. We are grateful to all these entities and volunteers that help us grow relationships with our neighbors in our surrounding community.
